

We created our list to share and introduce a wonderful variety of eclectic and distinctive wines we love – so others a discovery waiting to happen, but all of them delicious. The list changes frequently, so stop by often you had by the glass or flight and receive 10% off the bottle.

Want even more options? You can also purchase any bottle in our retail shop and enjoy it here for a $10 corkage fee.

Hungry? We offer a limited menu, and also welcome you to enjoy food from other market vendors with your purchase.

Bored? Feel free to browse through any one of our wine books or borrow one of our many board games - ask us for the

SPARKLING

2 oz. taste 5 oz. glass

Gran Sarao Cava, Spain		$6.00
An unbeatable value; we keep this one by the case at home. Great with food, great to celebrate, great just to enjoy.
P. Lancelot-Royer Demi-Sec Blanc de Blancs, Champagne		$11.00
This Champagne is ridiculously good, and a stunning value. Dry for a demi-sec, but with great richness and creamy brioche.
Mimosa		$7.00
Gran Sarao Cava & fresh-squeezed juice (orange, with maybe some mango or strawberry?) from the Green Kitchen
Spanish Bellini		$7.00
Gran Sarao Cava & Stirrings all-natural peach liqueur - damn, that's good!

ROSÉ 2 oz. taste 5 oz. glass

Charles & Charles 2009 Syrah Rosé, Columbia Valley Washington	$2.75	$6.00
One of our most popular rosés last year, the Charles & Charles offers crispness, a hint of Syrah's pepperiness, and juicy
Bieler Pere et Fils 2009 Rosé, Côteaux d'Aix en Provence, France	$2.75	$6.00
A classic dry Southern French rosé, light on the palate yet with nuanced flavors of watermelon and bright red cherry.
Domaine de Nizas 2009 Rosé, Languedoc, France	$3.50	$7.50
A concentrated and rich blend of 50% Syrah, 40% Grenache, and 10% Cinsault. Full-bodied, lush, and delicious.

WHITE

Natura 2009 Sauvignon Blanc, Chile	$2.50	$5.50
A delicious and unique blend of Semillon, Chardonnay, and Arneis - lush on the palate yet clean, with flavors of green fig
Bex 2007 Riesling, Pfalz Germany	$2.75	$6.00
Classic German Riesling, with sweetness balanced by vibrant acidity and flavors of peach, tropical fruit, and white flowers
Dry Creek Vineyards 2008 Chenin Blanc, Clarksburg California	$3.00	$6.25
This dry Chenin Blanc shows classic varietal flavors of honey, lanolin, and a bit of nuttiness to frame vibrant green-apple
Perrin 2008 Côtes du Rhône Blanc, France	$3.00	$6.50
A blend of classic Rhône varietals, the Perrin offers minerality and a full structure to complement citrus and apple flavors
Valdesil 2008 "Montenovo" Godello, Valdeorras Spain	$3.25	$7.00
Godello is vastly underappreciated, and the Montenovo is a great example, with crisp acidity complementing honeydew
Bodegas Naia 2008 Verdejo, Spain	$3.25	$7.00
A delicious alternative to Sauvignon Blanc - crisp and refreshing, with great concentration of grapefruit and citrus.
Marco Felluga 2007 Friulano, Collio Italy	$3.50	$7.75
From the grape formerly known as Tocai, this wine features lemony creaminess, steely minerality, a bit of pepper, and
Terrazas de los Andes 2008 Torrontes "Reserva", Mendoza Argentina	$3.75	$8.00
One of the best Torrontes we've tried, with the varietal's classic floral & stone fruit notes, but with exceptional depth &
Albert Bichot 2007 Chablis, France	$4.00	$8.50
It's rare to find good Chablis at this price, but the Bichot is textbook with green apple, lemon, and wet-pebble minerality
Nora 2008 Albariño, Rias Baixas Spain	$4.00	$8.50
Classic Albariño minerality, crispness, honeydew melon & a hint of nuttiness, but richer than most, with a lovely peachy
Whitehall Lane 2007 Chardonnay, Carneros California	$4.25	$9.00
A full-bodied, rich Chardonnay - creamy & lush, but the cool Carneros climate gives it a core of acidity to keep it balanced
Stag's Leap Wine Cellars 2007 Sauvignon Blanc, Napa Valley	$4.75	$10.00
A phenomenal Sauvignon Blanc that shows how well good examples can evolve with age. Barrel fermentation adds richness
BEER, SODA, WATER		bottle
Rotating selection of micro (and a few macro) brews (12 oz)		$3.00
Chimay Red Label Trappist Ale, Belgium (11.2 oz)		$6.00
Assorted large bottles (750 ml)		retail + $3 corkage
San Pellegrino sparkling water (500ml)		$3.95
Bottled water (500ml)		$1.00
Coke, Diet Coke, Sprite		$1.00

RED

2 oz. taste 5 oz. glass

Tunnel of Elms 2007 Merlot, California	$2.50	$5.50
Smooth and easy-drinking, with a medium body and flavors of red berry fruit, a hint of spice, and balanced acidity.
C'Est La Vie 2007 Pinot Noir / Syrah, Southern France	$2.75	$6.00
An intriguing blend that you wouldn't think would work well, but it does. Bright cherry Pinot fruit combined with Syrah's
Nieto 2008 Malbec, Mendoza Argentina	$2.75	$6.00
An old-vine Malbec with great balance, combining dark blueberry fruit & richness with elegance, chewy tannins, and aci
Casa Castillo 2007 Monastrell, Jumilla Spain	$3.00	$6.50
Full bodied, rich, and intense, this 100% Mourvedre offers loads of dark black fruit framed by notes of spicy oak.
Artazuri 2007 Garnacha, Navarra Spain	$3.25	$6.75
Bursting with juicy berry fruit and black pepper, this old-vine Grenache offers light tannins, fresh acidity, and a seamles
Grant Burge 2007 Benchmark Shiraz, South Australia	$3.50	$7.25
Classic Australian Shiraz from a top producer, full on the palate with brambly dark berry fruit, pepper, and a creamy mo
Terra Noble 2008 Reserve Carmenere, Maule Valley Chile	$3.50	$7.25
Rich Carmenere that's got a bit of savageness without being rustic. Full and intense, with mocha, velvety black fruit, a
Owen Roe 2008 "Rook", Columbia Valley Washington	$3.50	$7.25
A delicious blend that combines the smoothness of Merlot, the spiciness of Syrah, and the structure & black fruit of C
Cascina Bongiovanni 2007 Dolcetto d'Alba, Italy	$4.00	$8.25
A beautiful Dolcetto - medium bodied, with dark cherry flavors, brisk acidity, a hint of anise, and undertones of minerali
Sabor Real 2005 "Viñas Centenarias" Tempranillo, Toro Spain	$4.00	$8.50
Old-vine Tempranillo that's full-bodied and chewy, with layers of flavors and a long finish. A favorite at our Tempranillo
Whitehall Lane 2006 "Bommarito" Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley CA	$4.00	$8.50
Textbook Napa Cabernet at a great price, featuring black currants and cassis framed by a bit of spicy oak. Smooth.
Ninquen 2007 "Antu" Syrah, Colchagua Valley Chile	$4.50	$9.50
The biggest wine on this list, from consultant Paul Hobbs. Full, rich, lush, and concentrated, with dark black fruit and a l
Nautilus 2008 Pinot Noir, Marlborough New Zealand	$5.00	$11.00
A stunning Pinot Noir - rich cherry and strawberry fruit, cola, forest floor. Great depth and concentration, long finish. Ju

SWEET

Gonzales Byass "Solera 1847" Oloroso Dulce, Jerez Spain	$5.00 (2.5 oz.)
A sweet Sherry, with flavors of caramel, toffee, butterscotch, and a bit of hazelnuts. Rich and lush on the palate, with a
Quinta do Noval 2003 Late-Bottled-Vintage Port, Portugal	$6.50 (2.5 oz.)
Textbook Port - smooth dark fruit, licorice, hint of orange peel, rich and concentrated, notes of spicy oak, packs a punc

FLIGHTS

Choose from the flights below, or create your own by choosing any three wines from the list

A Trio of Rosés	Three 2-oz.
Bieler Pere et Fils, Charles & Charles, Domaine de Nizas	$8.75
Three delicious dry rosés, from the lighter-bodied Bieler to the peppery Charles & Charles to the lush Domaine de Niz
Unusual Whites	$10.00
Montenovo Godello, Terrazas de los Andes Torrontes, Felluga Friulano
You may not be familiar with these grapes, but they're definitely worth a try!
California Whites	$11.50
Dry Creek Chenin Blanc, Stag's Leap Sauvignon Blanc, Whitehall Lane Chardonnay
Three great examples from the Golden State: the crisp Chenin, an amazing Sauvignon Blanc, and a lush Chardonnay.
Spanish Reds	$10.00
Artazuri Grenache, Casa Castillo Monastrell, Sabor Real Toro
We just can't get enough of Spanish wines - great value for the money, with a wide range of flavors.
Reds from South America	$10.50
Nieto Malbec, Terra Noble Carmenere, Ninquen Syrah
Enjoy a trio of tasty South American reds, with two from Chile and an offering from Argentina.
Regional Classics	$12.00
Nautilus Pinot Noir, Bongiovanni Dolcetto d'Alba, Grant Burge Shiraz
These three wines are great examples of their varietals and regions - very different in style, but each true to type.

Wine list

Valid 5/24/10

Wine you might know,
Minimum. Purchase any wine

Wine list.

carafe
(2.5 glasses)

che.

carafe
$13.50

with raspberry.

$13.50

$17.50

$12.50

with pears & apples.

$13.50

with citrus.

$14.00

with stone fruit.

$14.50

with berries.

$16.00

with watermelon.

$16.00

$18.00 with a long finish.

$18.50

with depth & complexity.

$19.00

with acidity.

$19.00

with high quality.

$21.00

with elegance.

$23.00

with finesse.

Wine

Wine list

dated 5/24/10

carafe
(2.5 glasses)
$12.50

$13.50

is full body.

$13.50

identity.

$14.50

$15.00

is palate.

$17.00

mouthfeel.

$17.00

and spice.

$17.00

ab. Sauv.

$19.00

ity.

$19.50

tasting.

$19.50

$22.00

hint of spice.

$25.00

is lovely.

)
a long finish.

)
:h.

tastes

:as