DANCE CLASS

DivaDance Company

divadancenyc.com

Women of different skill levels, shapes and sizes with a common love of dance find an affordable way to stay fit with DivaDance. The routines, which range from hip-hop to strip to jazz, are more about having fun with music than stressing out about precision.

Whether you've been training for years or just enjoy shaking your stuff at a club to Beyoncé or Lady Gaga, DivaDance will have you feeling like you've just stepped out of (or into) a music video. Held in various studio locations around the city, classes typically cost $80 for six hour-long sessions and $20 for one hour-and-a-half session.
